Part-time Student Options:

Imago Dei Academy offers two part-time options for parents who have chosen to homeschool their children. The mission statement of IDA says that we want to “partner with parents” in this journey of education. Our goal is to be there and to support homeschooling families in any way we are able.

OPTION A: Students 7th grade and up may take individual classes at Imago Dei Academy. Some of these classes include, but are not limited to: orchestra, Latin, Omnibus, math, science, and art/drama. Please check with the administrator to see which classes are being offered for this school year. Monthly tuition is $100 per course for part-time students. Omnibus for grades 9-11 is $150.

OPTION B: Starting in 2012-2013, Imago Dei Academy is offering university-model classes for homeschooling families. Students 2nd through 12th grade attend all day, three days per week. Class sizes are limited, and will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Please call the office for more information.
